DEATH BY CHOCOLAT

THURSDAY, MAY 15, 2008

it's queen vikki's b-day... let's celebrate!

a thought from the editor...

For those of you who have been said, "I like your idea, may I subscribe to your newsletter?" - the day has finally come! Welcome to the first installment of the sporadically-produced e-newsletter, Death by Chocolat, named after our home, Club Chocolat! This newsletter will highlight upcoming events in and around the Club, as well as share tidbits of general awesomeness. The inaugural issue pays homage to Queen Victoria and all she did for us. You rock Vikki!

coming events

friday, may 16 > thank goodness it's freakin' friday...

Another long week is done and it's time for the long weekend to start! Join Cat, Brett & me for a chill evening of Mario Kart Wii, summertime beats, and just some good, ol' fashioned hanging out. The extra 'f' could have also meant 'fun'...

Any time after 7:00pm @ Club Chocolat (byob, if desired)

saturday, may 17 > beer & cocktail show

Yes, two of your favourite things are now part and parcel in one festival! Join the Chocolat Crew at Downsview Park for an afternoon (and evening) of friends and libations. More information is available at thebeerandcocktailshow.com.

Departing Club Chocolat @ 2:00pm (buying tickets online is advised)

monday, may 19 > an afternoon in the park

We have all been inside long enough! It's time to get out there and frolic in the park, play some bocce ball, throw the Frisbee around, maybe even have a picnic... Join us in Eglinton Park for a (hopefully) wonderful day in the sun!

Eglinton Park, 200 Eglinton Street West @ 2:00pm (if it rains, we'll just re-enact tgiff, see above)

friday, may 23 > sarah slean in concert

I really want to see Sarah Slean in concert and would love to have some friends come along. Tickets are $27.50 each. I would be happy to buy for the group and have everyone pay me back at the show. Let me know by Monday!

The Music Hall, 147 Danforth Avenue @ 7:00pm (show at 8:00pm)
